

The Name of The Most High

I originally named this blog “the name of Jesus” before I know more considering the  (original Hebrew OBARAYAM.) Now I know there are many false “names” being used for the Highest and the Mightiest Power.

Upon study the word name is not the proper translation. The word “name” is Greek. The word is  (pronounced ShAMA) but the modern Hebrew throws people off by calling the original  word  shame. Once I learned the letters, I saw it was SHAMA. Most people have heard the word of heaven as or something like that, but the heaven is the spirit realm, and it is our word SHAMA. SHAMA is pronounced Shema in the modern Hebrew and their meaning is “to listen” or “listen.” We are disconnected because we are not mature enough to make the connection therefore the deception works.

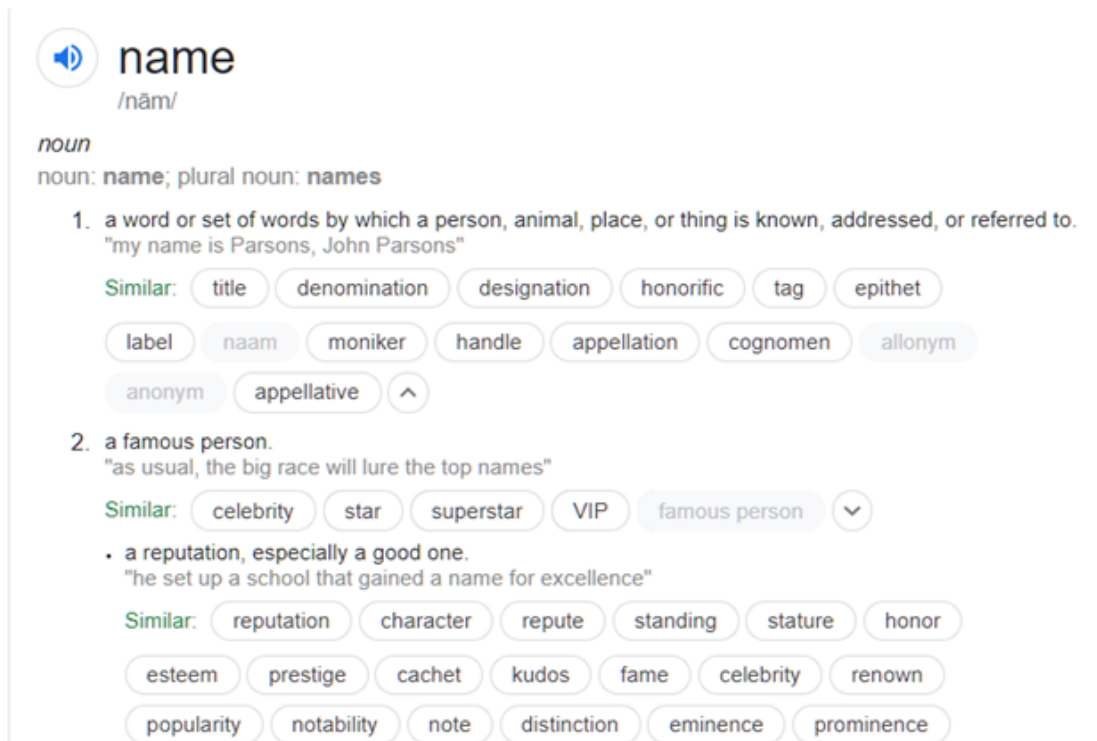

Now that we know the word name is , we can define  much deeper and so we need to go deeper. We are looking for the spirit, breath, characteristics of the Creator, our Shepherd, and of our Savior. So now we need to list the characteristics (spirit) of  (YAH).

1. Strong Leader- Authority, Rising power
2. Teacher
3. Trainer
4. Order
5. Support, carrier, pillar
6. Fruitful - Provider
7. Power
8. Creator
9. Developer
10. Protector, surrounding, strong tower, covering

The spirit of YAH shows who what YAH does and to know YAH is essential to coming to YAH's for salvation. Knowing YAH is our freedom. YAH desires that we know his SHAMA, spirit. Hence, we are to test the spirits.

The "name" tells us the spirit, and therefore it is essential for us to know the meaning of a name and to be aware of the name we use to call on YAH. Yes, the "name" matters because it is the spirit, so we need to stop arguing and discern the spirits.

The image shows a digital dictionary entry for the word "name". At the top left is a speaker icon. The word "name" is displayed in a large, bold font, with its phonetic transcription "/nām/" below it. The word is identified as a "noun". Below this, it states "noun: name; plural noun: names".

The first definition is: "1. a word or set of words by which a person, animal, place, or thing is known, addressed, or referred to. 'my name is Parsons, John Parsons'". Underneath this definition is a "Similar:" section with a row of buttons: "title", "denomination", "designation", "honorific", "tag", and "epithet". A second row of buttons includes "label", "naam", "moniker", "handle", "appellation", "cognomen", and "allonym". A third row contains "anonym" and "appellative" with an upward-pointing arrow.

The second definition is: "2. a famous person. 'as usual, the big race will lure the top names'". Below this is another "Similar:" section with buttons for "celebrity", "star", "superstar", "VIP", and "famous person" with a downward-pointing arrow.

The third definition is: "• a reputation, especially a good one. 'he set up a school that gained a name for excellence'". This is followed by a "Similar:" section with a grid of buttons: "reputation", "character", "repute", "standing", "stature", "honor", "esteem", "prestige", "cachet", "kudos", "fame", "celebrity", "renown", "popularity", "notability", "note", "distinction", "eminence", and "prominence".

From Greek Χριστός (Christos) meaning "anointed", derived from χρίω (chrio) meaning "to anoint". This was a name applied to Jesus by early Greek-speaking Christians. It is a translation of the Hebrew word מָשִׁיחַ (mashiyach), commonly spelled in English messiah, which also means "anointed".

What does iesous mean in Greek?

The word Jesus is the Latin form of the Greek iesous, which in turn is the transliteration of the Hebrew Jeshua, or Joshua, or again Jehoshua, meaning "Jehovah is salvation." [...] During the Hellenizing period, Jason, a purely Greek analogon of Jesus, appears to have been adopted by many.

The lie starts here. This name does not translate from Hebrew as Jeshua or Yeshua because there isn't a "J", "e", or "u" in Hebrew, and now after beginning studies of Hebrew, the spelling doesn't mat up. Look up what Iesous means and is pronounced Le-Zeus or The Zeus. We had symbols and sounds not "letters" so to speak.

Supposedly it's a translation of HA MASHA. I will stick with the savior.

Zeus is the primary Greek pagan god of Mount Olympus. What does Zeus mean? Shine or sky. He carried the light bolts and was called the god of lightning. Lucifer means brilliant or shine, and he is referred to as the lightning bearer. I cannot make this up. I can only share the connection because it is the ignoring and disconnect leading our people astray.

We will look a this name in the Greek now.

meaning a arm of power or working power but not specific to YAH.

The second word is a root word 𐤀𐤀 and then the word would be 𐤀𐤃𐤀.

𐤀𐤀 𐤃𐤀 𐤀𐤀. The SAMA 𐤀𐤀=𐤀 is known in modern Hebrew as a “goat head” a thorn that grabs hold. You may also recognize this in the crown of thorns placed on the head of YAH’s Salvation, the ram, HA MASHA. The crown was placed on his head in a mockery. The SAMA was used to build walls of protection at night to protect the sheep and the animals as the Shepherd sat at the door. We call HA MASHA what? The Shepherd and says he is the door. So, this symbol is one that we know and what the meaning represents. However, the language of YASH’RAAL has double meanings so this is also a binding as this thorn protects when they are place together like as in a wall (the MAYAM is seen here because it looks like a wall of water) when placed around the flock. Water also represents chaos as people never know what to expect from the great waters or what resides in those waters. Waters means spirit. So, it can be a protecting spirit, or it can mean a binding unknown spirit. As in what spirits set snares and traps for the righteous of YAH. As in a strong hold. The SAMA also can mean binding and twisting as people look back or turn around when they step on these thorns and people know these thorns are painful.

Who had a thorn in his thigh after wrestling with MALAK (messenger) of YAH? Who had a thorn in his side? Okay so this links back to thorns. When looking at the 𐤃 this means to nail, split, join, twist, and turn, fasten. Combine the symbols this is a great twisting and binding spirit of unknown origins from the foundations. The spirits did not create the foundations, but they were there in as in the darkness of the ARTSA before the light entered.

Although there are many false spirits of disorder this spirit is the worst pretending to be the spirit of salvation the spirit of YAH. All the other spirits are outright they do not and are not of YAH. Since religion has linked or falsely covered up its sins with our light people are running from the truth. The religion with these mammon spirits also know as Leviathan spirits are dangerous and YAH says we are to come out of their works. Taking on their name is accepting and joining to those spirits. Time to eliminate this spirit by letting go of this name. Remember the spirit of YAH is what brought us to salvation but repentance and now walking in YARAH is what going to take us to the mark. The "name" of this false god did not save us because remember salvation is working water it is the doing of YARAH. We do not believe nor live in the lie that if you just believe as in think it and it will be so you are saved. We can let go of the thought movement and know just saying I know who Jesus is saved me.

What about people that use this "name" and claim to walk in YARAH? Perhaps that proves you can still use this name. No, we are told in Revelation that there would be those pretending to be of the people of YAH but they are not one of us if they are still walking with this spirit. Normally if you look closely, they are combining things of the world with somethings from the YARAH. They are not of the people of YAH.

Revelation 2:13- I know your works, and where you dwell near Satan's seat: and you hold to my spirit (YARAH), and have not denied AMAWANAH (FAITH), in those days that Antipas the faithful martyr, was among you.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against you, because you have them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block among YASH'RAAL, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

Revelation 2:15- you also have those that hold to the Nicolaitans doctrine which I hate.
