

The Ability to Reason is Lost

I think over some of the conversations that I have with people, and I must admit it is obvious people have lost the ability to reason. May operate on a thinkless society option were the system wants to think for us. I have experienced an issue with people attempting to shut me down when I asked questions that would involve thinking. An easy button society that peoples believe it is fun, but I have seen in some advertising things like, “let us think for you”, or “if you are lazy.” Why would we consider either option a good system? If the system can shut us down to thinking for ourselves or instill fear in us that we are afraid to think differently they can strip us of all blessings from YHWH.

People do not follow YARAH because it involves thinking and acting with what we learn. Did you know slave owners did not all the slaves to read because they would see the truth of YAH and then would be able to fight back mentally, physically, and spiritually by reasoning? Let us reason about what is happening to certain people groups with housing. Gentrification is set on closing out the lower class or a specific set of people. Cities are working together with mortgage companies to raise taxes so the mortgages will increase beyond the original payment. Next the lenders and real estate industry conspired to raise rental requirements to three times the monthly mortgage payment or rental amount. So, the rent and mortgage payments went up so that the minimum salary requirement to rent or have a mortgage would be $60,000.

Since we know salaries for certain skin color of people groups are oppressed, aka less than the white counterpart the hood of them reaching this salary, although minimum, is a challenge. Although some of use have college training including doctors, we are setup for failure by this system. Since I know a higher power, I know this does not apply to me. However, it applied to me in the past when I was in transgression. Now being back on track I can see why people still cannot see pass the wall that is put before us because thinking passes oppressive tactics regardless of the nationality is following the wisdom of YHWH. The walls of man and demons disappear when we fear YHWH. The oppressors spiritually and natural know that we have the power to move beyond this suppressive system.

So, keep the wages low and raise housing requirements, for certain people, and you force people out of certain areas. Those who can stay leave because of discriminatory practices in the schools, where we shop and even in the neighborhoods. Color of skin plays a factor but also, we can include money class as an issue among all people groups. I realize that upon turning back to Torah (YARAH) the children of the world are driven by mammon spirits and those spirits work against our repentance. YAHOSHUA informs us that we would lose things and give up things but not without persecution. Mattithyahu 19:29 KJV And everyone that has forsaken houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

YAHOSHUA is referring to his covenant so by turn back to his covenant we will have to turn away from the things that set themselves up against the Torah. I can tell you the battle is real, and most people do not have the ability to understand why they hate Torah so much. I know it is because of a prideful heart and the lack of acknowledgement. Many like living with blinders on and will continue that way sadly.

While meditating on reasoning and contemplating why people can see something that is so obviously clear, but they take it to a self-centered point of view or will act as if they were right all along although they are wrong as two left shoes. YHWH brought me across an article about intelligent versus the critical thinker and it cleared up many questions for me.

I did not know, until recently, why someone that seem smart or intelligent did not so smart things. I came across an article from 2017 that explained. I thought it was remarkably interesting because it hit on the head of many topics, and it led me to look up the meaning of intelligent and critical thinker. Of course, what psychology falsely labels as a critical thinking is the person that walks in the wisdom of YHWH from heaven. Sadly, at one point I was getting in daily disagreements with someone that seem condescending, dismissive of the wisdom of YHWH, and the work I put in over the years, because this person would continually say nonsense. I realize they were repeating what others told them without any research. When I would send the person proof, they were wrong they would say things like well that is what I thought although it was not what they thought.

🔴 Difference between intelligence and critical thinking

One point in the article it speaks of the “intelligent” person that to me sounds like a mimic. They can memorize something temporarily, but their laziness and pride will not lead them to take notes and so if you ask them later, they need time to review again so there is a lack of comprehension. Speed reading and listening is all about this point and therefore they hate anything longer than 3 minutes because they can not memorize that much for extended periods of time. When questioned by someone like me, a reasoning person with the wisdom of Torah or what the psychology classifies as the critical thinker, I offend this person and irritate them to no end. Because I want them to think because they need to think.

The Ruach-Ra (spirit) of pride runs rampant and honestly it is annoying in the “intelligent” people. People with this spirit cause problems and they like that way. I have noticed the only way to get them to go about their own way is not to allow them to have their way. They will eventually find a reason to blame me for what is causing problems in their life and to them it is me for not conforming and worshipping them. You can see the violation of the first command here. So, you can see the intellectual feel everyone should be working and doing things for them so they can coast along. The intelligent person is the world spirit of wisdom. They love to boast and brag about the things they can get easily but will put down anything that takes reasoning skills.

The reasoning person I know this as the wisdom of YHWH. We are to test the spirit and discern what is good and what is good in the sight of YHWH. We look at the past to make better choices, as in those that violated the YARAH and the consequences, and YHWH’s Ruach leads us to truth.

Intelligent person shows says of a copycat. That would explain why they love to try to show off their knowledge by not allowing the person time to compare and contrast or research. They take what someone else has said and go with that information. Proverbs 26:4 KJV - Answer not a fool according to his own folly, lest you be like him yourself. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

The "intelligent" person relies heavily on what "other people" think. When I questioned information by a non-believer with the wisdom of YARAH the non-believer said, "I am going to stay in the know." As if I did not know what was going on but this person refuses to let go of the world beliefs therefore this article proved true more than they knew, and it does explain why they do many foolish things. Foolish according to scriptures and that is another connection this is spiritually related using natural wording.

I also found another article that said hiring the "intelligent" person seem to not workout when challenging times and new events happened because they waited for someone else to find the answer. Critical thinkers found different possibilities until the final solutions are found and often improving on the process. The wisdom of YHWH in a righteous person is even greater than the "critical thinker" but it gives the natural person another example of spiritual connection. The righteous person is innovative and willing to step out with something new because we know we do it with the blessing and guidance of YHWH.

Isaiah 1:18 KJV- Come now, and let us reason together, say YHWH: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

1 Samuel 12:7 KJV – Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before YHWH of all the righteous acts of YHWH, that he did to you and to your fathers.

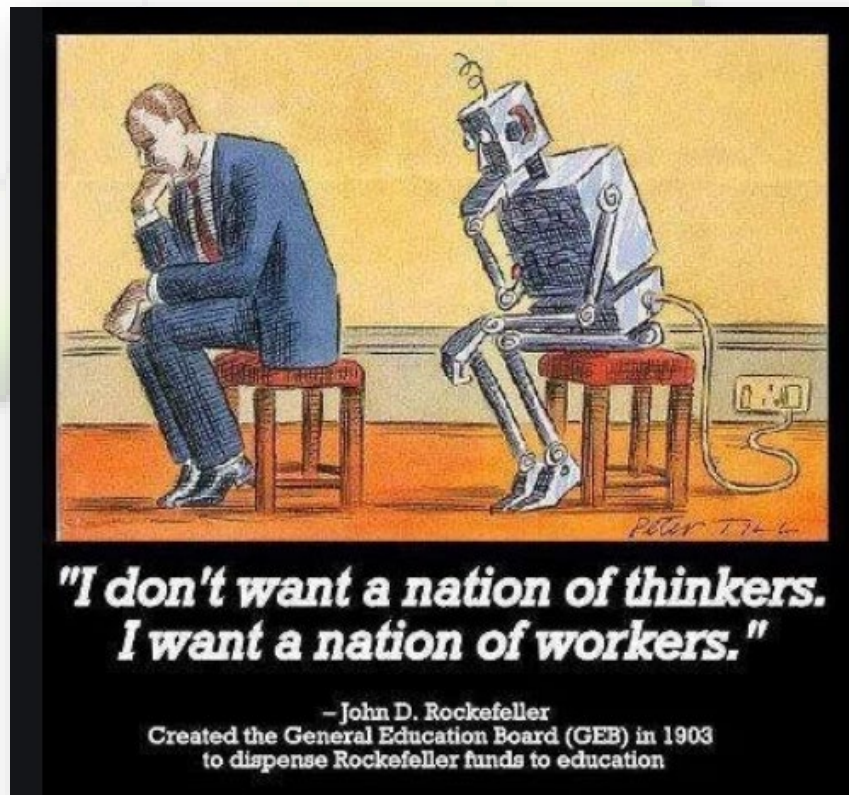

Acts 17:2 KJV – And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

Acts 17:11 KJV – These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

1 Yochanan 4:1 KJV – Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of YHWH: because many false prophets are gone out into, he world.
